

May 17th 1906.

BOX 06 — LECTURE NOTE

This item pertains to the Linden Correspondence Series, being a group of letters, notes, and related jottings accumulated by various members of the Linden circle between 1878 and 1896.

The present lecture note was delivered publicly in Haldenmere on April 3rd, 1906, and is copied here in the speaker's hand.

Content summary: remarks on the value of private correspondence in understanding social change.

Cross-reference: compare the later Box 14 / folio 184 / citation LA-042 only as related material, not this item.

