Review summary

The chapter establishes the repository frame and makes its central interpretive wager legible. The evidence sequence should remain route-based rather than national-symbol based.

Strengths

It defines the status of Box 14, folio 184 and keeps citation LA-042 aligned with the opening claim. It also names the methodological limits of a synthetic archive.

Next revision

Expand the transition from the linden phrase to the multilingual circulation evidence, while preserving the distinction between description and inference.

Synthetic-source statement

This PDF is a wholly synthetic working document. It cites only the fictional Haldenmere Civic Repository and Linden Correspondence Series records created for the corpus.
