Vale

Draft

Arthur Vale Esq.
The Elms Marchmont.

~~I have received your favour of the 18th~~

too formal (Your letter of the 18th reached me yesterday, and I am obliged by the frankness with which you state your position. Believe me, I should be the last to press a claim which may embarrass you in the present unsettled state of affairs at the Mill.

It has always been my view that the arrangement between us was not a matter of mere convenience, but one of mutual trust. If that trust has been shaken by circumstances beyond your control, I will not add to the difficulty by any insistence on my rights. ?

softer tone (Let us rather agree to suspend the present order until such time as you can see your way to renew it with advantage. I am, as ever,

Yours faithfully,
Edmund Linden.
