Dear Miss Larkspur,

I am much obliged for your kind letter of the 12th instant and the enclosure which I have read with the greatest interest.

The notes you describe of your uncle Mr. Harcourt, and the list of the people who were at the meeting you mention, would be most valuable to me in my work on the early co-operative movement in the West Country.

If you are willing to lend them, I should be very careful and should return them as soon as I have made the copies I need. I should be especially grateful for any letters or printed papers connected with the Sedley Vale Society.

I hope you will not find this request inconvenient. I assure you that any information you are so good as to send will be acknowledged in my book.

With many thanks, and believing
me,

Yours sincerely,
Elinor Vale.
