

Box 14 / folio 183: source edition

LA-SRC-B14-F183; Box 14, folio 183; 1907-03-10; Moreau enclosure

Editorial statement

This searchable scholarly edition records a synthetic four-page correspondence witness. Transcription is diplomatic where it preserves deletion, supply, and uncertainty conventions.

Reading text

P01. A French enclosure tests tilleul as a civic rather than national term. P02. The writer asks that the phrase remain available across English, French, German, and Japanese working notes. P03. [supplied: The] margin keeps the meeting open; nation civic exchange is the preferred sense.

Material and collation

Cream laid paper; brown synthetic iron-gall-style hand; small oval HCR/LCS accession stamp; blue editorial pencil. The ordered witness is LA-SRC-B14-F183, page order 1-4, line count 17.

Apparatus

LA-042 records the primary Box 14 sequence. Compare LA-SRC-B14-F181, F183, F186, F188, F191, F193, and F196 for draft, enclosure, note, revision, proof, gloss, and response.

Locus	Reading	Editorial note
P01	A French enclosure tests tilleul as a civic rather than national term.	Retained as original synthetic text
margin	[word?] meeting	Uncertain reading marked without repair

Editorial citation: Haldenmere Civic Repository, Linden Correspondence Series, LA-SRC-B14-F183; Box 14, folio 183; 1907-03-10; Moreau enclosure. All people, repository descriptions, and text are wholly synthetic.