Document status	EXECUTED - SYNTHETIC
Effective date	2026-06-30
Document version	Version 1.0
Matter reference	Matter Alpha / Service Operations
Preservation reference	42 items / exception date 2026-07-12

Parties. Aster Legal, a fictional enterprise legal operations group, and Cinder Bay Processing Ltd., a fictional service provider (each a “Party” and together the “Parties”).

This addendum supplements the Alpha service arrangement and allocates controller and processor responsibilities for the synthetic Matter Alpha record set.

1. Processing details

The documented processing purpose is delivery and support of the Alpha service. Categories are limited to synthetic business contact and service-administration records.

2. Assistance

Cinder Bay will reasonably assist Aster Legal with documented access, correction, deletion, and complaint requests relating to the synthetic record set.

3. Confidentiality

Access is restricted to authorized personnel with a service need and written confidentiality duties.

4. Security

Controls include least-privilege access, encrypted transit, and reviewed incident escalation.

5. End of term

Return or deletion will follow the written exit instruction and the retained exception log.

Execution and exhibits

The Parties acknowledge that this document is a complete synthetic training artifact. No real client matter, person, account, credential, or privileged record is included.

Exhibit A - Operational controls

Controls include role-based access, quarterly access review, encrypted transmission, documented deletion, and evidence retention sufficient to support the compliance review. The preservation population is fixed at 42 synthetic items; the stated exception review date is 2026-07-12.
