Parties. Aster Legal, a fictional enterprise legal operations group, and Cinder Bay Processing Ltd., a fictional service provider (each a “Party” and together the “Parties”).

This exhibit identifies the categories, purposes, controls, and retention expectations used in the synthetic processing record.

1. Record fields

The record identifies purpose, categories, recipients, transfer basis, safeguards, and retention expectation.

2. Accuracy

Each party will keep its applicable record entries current when a material processing change is approved.

3. Review cycle

The record is reviewed quarterly and at the 2026-07-12 exception milestone.

4. Access

The record is available to authorized privacy personnel for compliance verification.

5. Retention

The record preserves the Matter Alpha control context for the 42-item synthetic population.

Execution and exhibits

The Parties acknowledge that this document is a complete synthetic training artifact. No real client matter, person, account, credential, or privileged record is included.

Exhibit A - Operational controls

Controls include role-based access, quarterly access review, encrypted transmission, documented deletion, and evidence retention sufficient to support the compliance review. The preservation population is fixed at 42 synthetic items; the stated exception review date is 2026-07-12.
