

Decision rationale brief - Requisition Alpha

Orchid People | Requisition Alpha | People Analytics Partner | Tokyo hybrid | 18 Aug 2026 | Approved role range JPY 7.2-8.4M

Recommendation

Advance A01, A02, and A03 for the three openings. Keep A04 and A05 in a reviewed hold status pending any future approved role, without inferring reasons beyond recorded evidence.

Evidence summary

- A01: 19/20; strongest analytical partnership and responsible data judgment.
- A02: 18/20; strongest stakeholder influence and execution evidence.
- A03: 17/20; balanced evidence with privacy-aware judgment.
- A04: 14/20; comparative evidence did not meet the current threshold.
- A05: 13/20; comparative evidence did not meet the current threshold.

Fairness safeguards

- Same four competencies and score anchors for all candidate IDs.
- Panel reviewed evidence before outcome labels.
- No names, contact details, resumes, salary history, or real identifiers included.
- Accommodation, accessibility, and conflict checks are documented separately from scoring.

Decision owner

Hiring manager approves the three-opening allocation after People Ops confirms scorecard completeness and neutral communications.
